Your Entitlement	Under section 67 of the Victorian Occupational Health and Safety Act (the OHS Act) 2004 an employer, if requested, must allow an elected HSR and elected deputy HSR to attend a WorkSafe-approved HSR Initial OHS Training Course on paid time, pay the cost of the course and any other associated costs. Section 67 also allows HSRs to choose the course in consultation with their employer.
Course Overview	This WorkSafe-approved training course will help an HSR and Deputy HSR understand and effectively exercise their powers, protections and entitlements under the OHS Act 2004. OHS training equips HSRs/DHSRs with the confidence, skills and knowledge to represent their designated work group and to help make their workplace safer. Note: Although HSRs are the primary audience, managers, supervisors, health and safety committee members and anyone with an interest in health and safety may also benefit from attending this course.
Learning Objectives (LO)	The Learning Objectives of the initial course are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Interpreting the occupational health and safety legislative framework and its relationship to the HSR • Identifying key parties and their legislative obligations and duties • Establishing representation in the workplace • Participating in consultation and issue resolution • Represent designated work group members in any OHS risk management process undertaken by the appropriate duty holders • Issuing a Provisional Improvement Notice (PIN) and directing the cessation of work
